

321H.1 Administration.

The administration of this chapter shall be vested in the director of the state department of transportation. The department may employ such employees as are necessary for the administration of this chapter, within applicable budget limitations.

[C79, 81, §321H.1]